THE 1952 SOUTHERNER

OF MISSISSIPPI SOUTHERN COLLEGE—HATTIESBURG, MISS.

Those of us here at Mississippi Southern College are now gathering many memories of places, friends, and occurrences which will remain with us forever. Those who have already graduated will ever recall precious memories of Southern, and the reminiscenses are all similar for the friendliness, companionship and atmosphere of MSC is such that will linger on through the years. Let's stroll around the campus and see just what makes Southern Mississippi's most promising college.

Upon arrival, the freshmen are greeted by eager, smiling upper-classmen. Their first days in college are made easier by those who already have found their place in college life. Parting from the family, friends at home--the strangeness of a new place soon disappears because Southern is not the place where one can ever feel out of place or lonely.

Old students at MSC feel a unique thrill upon arriving on the campus after vacation. Sweethearts are reunited, friendships are renewed, and familiar places are once again revisited.

All new students experience the feeling of being lost at their first registration. The long lines, the strange faces, all cause some anxiety. However, when the crowd gathers down in Wimpy's or when it rushes over to the post office, the informality which makes Southern famous soon suppresses all fears in the green members of Dr. Cook's great family.

Of course, there must be some time for studying and going to classes. The Southerners, however, take all of this academic procedure in their stride with the same smiling, friendly attitude, for even the library isn't always dull. Here acquaintances are made which ultimately ripen into close friendships.

Freshmen do not have much time to grow homesick and blue with the assemblies, meetings, and orientation program acquainting them with the ways of life at our college. With such a beginning, they can hardly fail.

The sports activities and various campaigns all add spice to the college life, Then, of course, dating helps to take the kinks out of new students and puts new spirit into the upperclassmen. Surely, the best years of our life are spent here!

After the first day or two, nearly all the new students--except the greenest of us--know where and when their classes meet and how to get there. This first day is usually a hectic one in the life of a beginner, yet the names of the buildings soon become familiar, and the locations are no longer a blur in the mind.

The president's tea helps the students to learn the various faculty members and to become aware that the teachers are here to help—not to frighten or make college life miserable.

That first conference with the Dean of Women or Dean of Men is, surprisingly enough, an informal talk instead of a stern lecture. Here friendly advice is given and grievances are heard and corrected. Students are aided in their choice of a major field as well as with all personal problems.

Upperclassmen are also aided in their problems just as freshmen are. The red tape of graduation, quality points, and hours is here cleared up. The informal air which prevails between those in positions and the students makes for easier living and better satisfaction in a college education.

Various activities take up much of the students' time and because of Southern's state-wide popularity we often find it necessary to stand in line in our cafeteria. Even this is fun and part of one's college life. Students here at Southern produce and direct plays, and high interest in drama is distinctly emphasized. This year has seen a number of memorable productions.

The "grand hotel" houses the dignified senior women, and every girl has as her ambition to live in and be a part of this new addition to our growing college. All of the conveniences of home are here enjoyed with even a few added treats. The elevator, even though it sticks occasionally between floors, eases the burdens of the older classmembers. Life in the other dorms is just as much fun. Our dormitory life here plays a large part in our experiences at college.

Yes, four years spent at Mississippi Southern are four years to remember. MSC is a college to be proud of, and any graduate will tell you so in no few words. The memories, friends, and pleasant times had at Southern will dwell in our minds and hearts for many, many years. With a background of college education as well-rounded as the one obtained at Southern, how can any student in Mississippi afford to miss such an opportunity that is ours!

DEDICATION

Because she has dedicated 40 years of her life teaching and inspiring those students who have passed through the portals of Mississippi Southern College, because we admire and love her as both a teacher and a friend, because she is an esteemed figure on our campus possessing those humane qualities which have made her unforgettable to the thousands taught by her, and because she has touched the heart-strings in a fashion that reawakens sentiments that ring strong and clear, we respectfully dedicate the 1952 SOUTHERNER to Miss Alma Hickman.

R. C. COOK

The leadership and gracious manner of Dr. R. C. Cook, President of Mississippi Southern College since July 1, 1945, has made our college what it is today. His administrative ability, tireless efforts, and extensive background in education have won for him the respect of our state and the admiration and love of our student body.

His faith in the students at Southern and his unending efforts for the advancement of the college have made him irreplaceable in the growth and development of this school.

ACTIVITIES

Composed of five elected officers, a representative of each class and of each organization whose aims meet Student Council approval, the Student Council is the major legislative body of student government at Southern. Here policies of student government are decided, all student activities are supervised, and expenditures of student fees are allocated and supervised.

In 1951-52 the Student Council helped organize the MSC orchestra, placed stamp machines in the dormitories, instigated the student loan fund and backed the Name-for-Southern contest.

THE 1952 SOUTHERNER

Publishing the 1952 SOUTHERNER has been a combination of much work and much fun—mostly hard work, too. The Staff started off with a bang this year—to get the yearbook out far ahead of schedule. The usual difficulties were met, and once again the Staff is in the same predicament that our advisor says happens every year: We're hoping the book gets here before you leave school! Our Editor, Miss Aimée Tindall of Soso (that SOSO Senior as the Printz once called her) found tasks for us all; and our faculty advisor, Mr. J. T. Palmer, demonstrated the patience of Job when we failed to meet deadlines, failed to get copy off to the printer, and generally were lazy as a staff always is. Slowly however our material was assembled as our nerves became more "shot." We hope the book is an accurate portrayal of this great year both in our lives and in the life of our Alma Mater.

THE STUDENT PRINTZ

The Student Printz, our official weekly publication of the student body of Mississippi Southern, is edited and financed entirely by students, under the direction of an editor, a business manager, and a faculty advisor. To Glen Jones, Executive Editor, to Bob Hicks, Business Manager, to Mr. Leo Muller, Faculty Advisor, and to the entire staff go the thanks of the student body for a publication superior to any other in the state. Certainly no student publication can ever please all the students all the time, but we feel that our student publication has done an impartial job of printing all campus news, although at times it has been criticized for publishing facts embarrassing to some readers. Only by printing all the campus news and "letting the chips fall where they may" can a paper serve its primary function—that of informing its readers. For an "All American" paper, we say "thanks."

SOUTHERN PLAYERS

The Southern Players, under the expert direction of Mr. John Mullin, has certainly contributed more than its share to student life on our campus during the present year. Such outstanding productions as "Out of the Frying Pan," and "Where the Cross Is Made" will not soon be forgotten. Its experimental theatre has provided experiences in acting, directing, and casting that have proved invaluable.

SOUTHERN SINGERS

Seated: Langley, Myers, Anderson, Martin, Holliday, Reid, Montgomery, Craft. Standing: McIntyre, Cleveland, Treischmann, Scheffler, Riley

The Southern Singers, an organization composed of outstanding young women singers, has provided good singing that is hard to equal. Its performance has always been superior; its audience always captivated.

The Madrigallians, an organization composed of both outstanding young men and young women, is well known on our campus. Its service to our student body has certainly been a valuable one. Southern can be proud of such outstanding singers.

STRING QUARTETTE

Music lovers all over our state have constantly complimented the performance of our String Quartet. Its members, who teach in our own music department, have brought to us good music in a good manner.

The Sinfonietta, composed of 22 instruments and under the able direction of Mr. Frank Earl Marsh, Jr., with Mr. James Shannon as Concertmaster, has provided expert music throughout the entire year.

Bob Storey and his Golden Notes, organized at the beginning of the present academic year, have contributed much to the student life at Mississippi Southern College. Their new "Bebop" dress plus their semi-Stan Kenton style established their popularity early in the year. Southern is proud to have once again a first-rate student orchestra.

The Homecoming March

"T" for Tech

The 1951-1952 Band at Mississippi Southern College, with its new colorful uniforms and its strutting majorettes, is one that we shall never quite forget. Directed by Mr. James Shannon and led by Anthony Jimenez, one of the smartest drum majors in the South, our band entertained during the half-time at all our football games at Faulkner Field and journeyed with our team all over the southland. Its snappy formations and its unique programs were enjoyed and always vigorously applauded. We missed the professional strutting and whirling of "our" Tommye Morris of last year; yet her little sister Rosie Ann and the other majorettes were incomparable. The 1951-1952 Band, both the marching and the concert bands, made a big hit for Southern.

KAPPA

DELTA

On their pintos, palominos, and a few Arabian stallions, Kappa Delta cantered down to Southern's campus in 1949 . . . Riding the Blue Ribbon Prize Winner is Johneen Ingersoll . . . sometimes, tho' seldom, the honor is bestowed upon Emily Elam . . . when judges are called in, their decisions are recorded by Marsha Young . . . Pat Readman, dressed in her best riding habit, ably manages the budget . . . Every quarter Betty Craig begins training the new "lil' foals" . . . being versatile, each equestrienne is a member in some other organization whether it be Pi Delta Phi, Kappa Pi, Pi Kappa Lambda, Alpha Psi Omega, student government or Vesper Choir.

MU

On March 25, 1950, Phi Mu established its fortune-telling bureau on Southern's campus . . . with profound efficiency Madame Margaret Wright reads the palms with Evelyn Montgomery helping out only when an unusual line appears . . . Joan Quarles fills out the card for the customers . . . when a unique revelation is made Sally Warren sends it to Phi Mu's National Madame . . . collecting from the many satisfied customers is Jeanette Weathersby . . . and Marlene Brantley and Mary Catherine Frazier spend several hours a week instructing the younger palmists . . . more palms can be studied when they enroll in Kappa Pi, Southern Singers, Southern Players, the band, and the Student Printz . . . Evelyn, the red-head, and "Kat" often forget to read palms and resort to reading music in the Vesper Choir.

DELTA DELTA

The Royal Court of Delta Delta Delta established its kingdom at Mississippi Southern in 1950 . . . as Marie Stoner reads soft words in a reverent manner, Queen Marilyn Pittman gracefully marches down the pansy-carpeted aisle . . . junior queen Martha Traylor follows closely . . . Mary Ellen Barber spends a portion of her time in the Royal den, writing down what Queenie has to say . . . Carolyn Pieri sends a monthly report to National Council of Queens . . . jewels are locked in Elsie's gold bank . . . their life of royalty is intermingled with philanthropic activities, music and religious organizations, dramatics, and all phases of campus life.

For the second straight year, the Southerners copped the Gulf States Conference Championship, their third in four years, totaling six wins and five defeats.

Although record-breaking gridsters of former years such as Cliff Coggins and "Bubber" Phillips were missing in the Southern lineup, Head Coach Thad (Pie) Vann and his capable assistants, Clyde Stuart and H. A. Smith, were equipped with sixteen efficient returning lettermen and such notable newcomers as "Scrappy" Hart and "Bucky" McElroy, who proved themselves to be of very high calibre.

Starting the 1951 season off with a bigger bang than an atom bomb, the Southerners romped over Eastern Carolina State 40-0. With such a victory for their first game, the Vannmen let it be known that they were a team to be reckoned with for the rest of the season.

Then the Southerners travelled down into bayou country where they tangled with the LSU Tigers, dropping the game 13-0. The Tigers passed the Southerners dizzy throughout the game, but the Vannmen would come back at them with penetrating ground attacks, causing the Tiger men's nerves to be on edge the entire contest. As Jack Dix, sport announcer for WHSY, said when LSU tried a field goal, "They were not just shooting at ducks on the pond."

The fly boys from Carswell Air Force Base, boasting two All-Americans and looking like men from Mars, added salt to the wound by dropping the Southerners 26-0. This game was scheduled as a sleeper, only to turn out as a nightmare.

However, for the next three weeks, the Vannmen were sailing on a high tide. They cruised over McMurry College 54-7, skunked SLI 41-0, and thrashed Southeastern 35-6.

Then Chattanooga sank the Southerner's sailboat 19-7. But the Vannmen came back the next week with fresh vigor and sailed on up the Championship River when they held a track meet with Northwestern in which they shellacked the Louisiana lads 76-0 before a cold homecoming crowd. The Northwestern score set a record for the most points scored in a single game.

The Crimson Tide of Alabama slowed the Southerners down to the tune of 40-7, but the pigskin "toters" of Southern hit the comeback trail again and rolled over Louisiana Tech 33-7, settling the dispute to who would be the GSC Champs of 1951.

In their final game of the season, the Vannmen fought and were nosed out 14-13 by the University of Louisville on a cold November day.

Coach Vann, finishing his third successful season as head mentor, was again named "GSC Coach of the Year" for the second straight year.

Southern dominated the All-GSC team by placing nineteen men on it. "Scrappy" Hart, "Bucky" McElroy, Dick Caldwell, Phil Muscemi, Walter Mann, and Eddie Kauchick attained

The Alabama Tilt

first team honors, Jimmie Brashier, Phil Muscarello, Tom LeGros, Jackson Brumfield, Bob McKellar, Dave Allen, Ken Farris, Ed McDaniel, and Jack Fulkerson copped positions on the second team; and Elmo Lang, Herbert Nobles, Pat Ferlise, and Elmer Kemper gained honorable mention laurels.

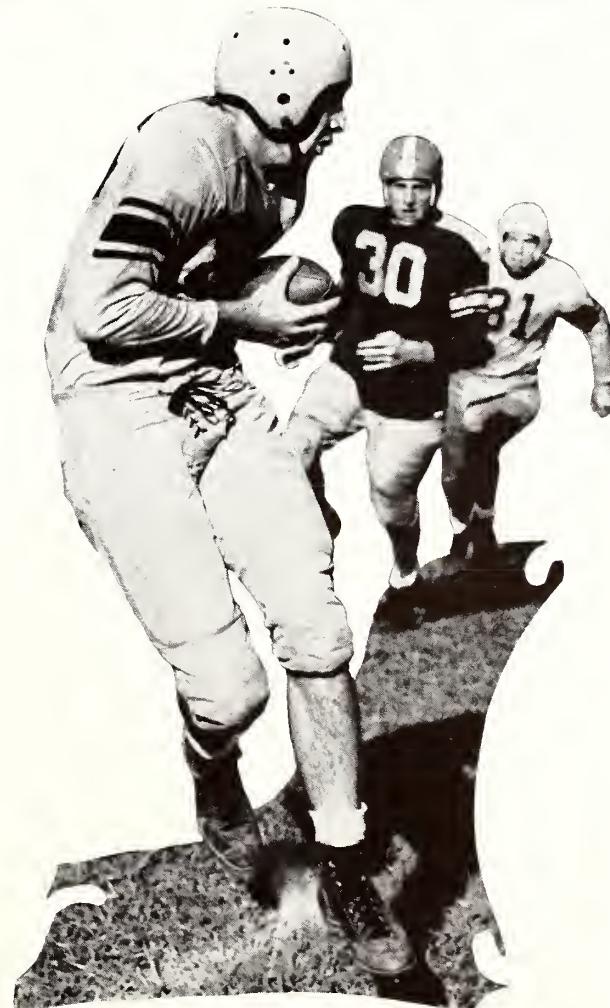

Several Southern men also received national honors. McElroy was selected on Paul Williamson's Mid-Bracket All-American second team, Musmeci made the third team, and McKellar and Mann achieved honorable mention titles. Allen, Musmeci, and McElroy were also named on the Associated Press' Little All-American team.

The justly named "Scrappy" Hart represented Southern in the 1951 Senior Bowl, in which he was outstanding as defensive halfback.

The Southerners amassed 306 points to the combined opposition's 132. McElroy set a new rushing record with a total of 854 yards to his credit.

The 1951 season was officially closed with the election of Musmeci as team captain and LeGros as alternate captain. Tom LeGros received the "Most Outstanding Player of the Year" award.

Congratulations and thanks are in order to Southern's red-headed, hard-working Director of Publicity, Jimmie "Mack" McDowell, for the magnificent support he contributed to the athletic department. "Mack" used more adjectives in describing the Southern athletes than Shakespeare had words in his vocabulary, and when he would exhaust his supply, he would contrive new ones. Thanks again, "Mack."

Something's Gotta Give!

We Caught It!

The tall Texan, Coach Lee Floyd, and his galloping quints were riding high in the saddle at the very beginning of the 1951-52 basketball season.

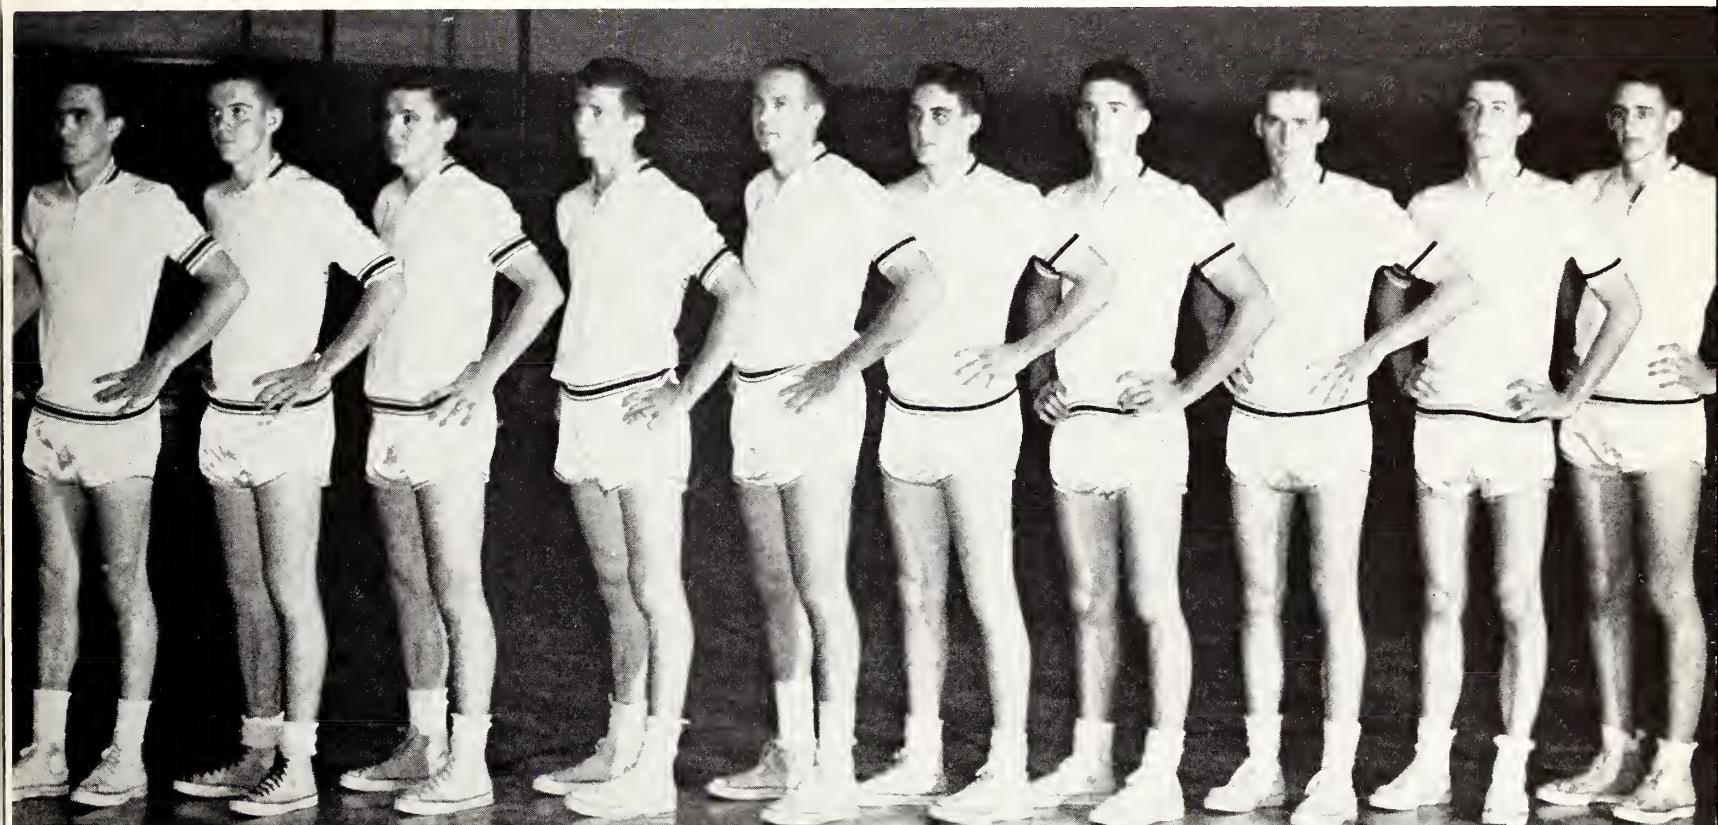

With the return of all lettermen of the previous season, excepting Jack Hill, Rollie Peirfederici, and Wyatt Tullos, the outlook for the season was definitely bright and expectations were high. At the end of the season, the Southern cagers positively lived up to these expectations and then some.

At the onset, the Southerners trampled Troy 103-37. They continued on down the schedule with similar triumphs, hitting a few snags, and easing out of others. Probably one of the most outstanding games of the season was the one in which they bid for national recognition by taking on the nationally ranked University of Dayton quints who eased the Southerners out 59-57. At the finale, the hoopsters were flashing a fourteen and three conference record and a twenty-six and seven overall mark.

For the first time since Coach Floyd came to Southern in 1949, he had an advantage that he had always been lacking, a big man under the wicket. His recruits included no less than four men who stood six three and over—Russell Hunley, Mickey Harrington, Roger Sorenson, and the returning, dependable John O'Keefe. Tom Bishop, Nick Revon, Jack Gallagher, Jeep Clark, Bobby Weathers, and Billy Allgood continued the outstanding performances on the rectangles they had accomplished in previous years. Three other newcomers to the squad, Bill Stross, Roy Guyton, and Vaughn Jones contributed vitally to the team.

Injuries were again hitting the Southerners. Bishop, Gallagher, Clark, Harrington, and Weathers were all retired from the court at intervals due to various causes.

Gallagher and Sorenson Team Up

Check That Form!

The cagers closed the season with as much success as did the gridsters. Battling it down to the wire with Loyola, the Southerners came out on top as Gulf States Conference Champions by defeating Spring Hill in the final game. Going on to the GSC tournament, Coach Floyd's men cased out Northwestern in the finals to bring home another championship.

Coach Floyd achieved the honor of being named "Co-Coach of the Year." As in football, the Southerners dominated the All GSC Team by placing Revon and Gallagher on the first team and Bishop on the second. Revon was high scorer in the conference.

The most important factor in the future for the Southern cagers is that there are no seniors on the squad and only five juniors. You may continue to expect to see the high calibre of play in the field house that has been performed in the past for years to come.

It is regrettable that the results of the NAIB Tournament could not be included in this year's annual. Whatever the results were, remember that those five men who stepped out onto the rectangles and dribbled that round ball up and down the court time after time did it not only for their personal esteem and glory, but also because they live basketball day and night and for the recognition of the school and coach they love—Mississippi Southern College and Coach Lee Floyd.

The staff of the SOUTHERNER regrets that due to the early publication date, neither pictures nor scores were available of the baseball team. However, some information of Coach C. E. Stuart's diamond prospects was secured. Letterman Nick Revon was expected to be the number one pitcher, with Harold Moss and Jimmy Mitcheson relieving him. First base would be controlled by Hub Waters and Jack Fulker- son; James Davenport and Arnold Franklin at second; Jeep Clark holding down shortstop; Paul Padgett and Leemon McHenry at third; Jack Gallagher and Ray Sinopoli in left field; Billy Allgood, Jackie Howard, and Booth Poole in center field; Milton White and Mickey Harring- ton in right field; and Dave Lee Walker and Jiggs Madison in catcher position. The team looked very well in practice and is expected to make an admirable showing in the conference.

Pictures and results of the baseball, track, ten- nis, golf, and gym teams will be included in the 1953 annual.

Southern's Golf team made an exceptionally good record during the last season, winning the Gulf States Conference championship in the last days of the season on the attractive court at the Hattiesburg Country Club.

LOCATION: Mississippi Southern College is in the center of South Mississippi, conveniently located almost equidistant from Jackson, Meridian, Gulfport and McComb. The buildings are new, and modern in a beautiful setting, with pine trees, water oaks, azaleas, camellias, a sunken garden, and a tropical lagoon.

DIVISIONS OF THE COLLEGE: Our different divisions are Biological Science, Commerce, Education, Psychology, Fine Arts, Health and Physical Education, Home Economics, Language and Literature, Military Science and Tactics, Physical Sciences and Mathematics, Practical Arts, Social Studies, and Speech Arts.

COURSES OF INSTRUCTION: Courses leading to the B.S. and B.A. degrees and the M.A. degree in Education and the M.M. degree are offered. Courses are offered in Education of Teachers, Science and Mathematics, Home Economics, Speech and Dramatic Arts, Geography and Geology, Music and Art, Commerce and Business, Social Studies, Health and Physical Education, Languages, English, Journalism, Industrial Arts, Conservation and Nature Study, Library Science, Pre-Law, Pre-Engineering, Pre-Medicine, and Medical Technician.

RECREATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES: Concrete tennis courts, a swimming pool, a nine-hole golf course, a field house and gymnasium, an air conditioned library, tours to New Orleans, deep sea fishing on the coast, lectures and dances will be available to students during the Spring and Summer Quarters.

MEETING THE NEEDS OF TEACHERS AND SUPERINTENDENTS: Teachers working on degrees may complete sixteen weeks of work by enrolling the last six weeks of the Spring Quarter and continuing through the Summer Quarter. Courses in the elementary and secondary fields and Graduate work will be offered to both teachers and administrators. A Reading Clinic and many other workshops and conferences will be held during the Summer Quarter.

A CHALLENGE

We again challenge the students of Mississippi Southern College and the readers of this Annual to read the Declaration of Independence and the Federal Constitution with its Bill of Rights at least once a year, and write your Senators and Congressmen at least twice a year urging them to make whatever sacrifice is necessary (even at the expense of political expediency) in an effort to stop this great nation of ours on its present course down the road to the left toward bankruptcy, collectivism and socialism. Urge our representatives at Washington to take a look at what is happening in England under the leadership of the late "labor socialistic" government, and remind our representatives that if this nation of ours continues the present course to the same destination there will be no Uncle Sam to donate five or six billion dollars to prolong the life of a socialistic government.
